ARDITI LM. - GARAGE, Tel Aviv

MARGINAL COLUMN By BERKIEL KESHET

THE Arab radio stations and newspapers are still reporting ; Israeli troop concentrations" along the border; the rumours have been spread (and have grown) with remarkable sped. One day there were imaginary Israeli "troop concentrations," and the next—these troops had already launched an equally imaginary attack on Israel's eastern neighbour, the Kingdom of Jordan; so much so that within twenty-four hours the Jordanian Embassy in Beirut, was forced to deny rumours which had been started more modestly, in Jordan itself the previous day—but not before the Lebanese parliament had dispersed in fright, and the Prime Minister had rushed off to immediate consultations about a military threat which had been layented, by one of his colleagues!

ALL this came as the culmination of an Arab press eampaign which in recent weeks had reached a new pitch of violence and untruth Arab political leaders, radio commentators and editorial writers had been vying with one another in their unbridled attacks on Israel — and in the picturesqueness of their language. One of the Saudi Arabian Ministers called Israel "a cancer which has to be cut out of the body of the Arab nation." Cairo radio described Israel as "a dagger aimed at our breast." The Mayor of Gaza, in a patriotic address, declared rather oddly: "Israel is a fish which the Arab ocean will eliminate." It seems quite clear that someone in the Arab world had decided, for reasons far from clear, to launch a new war scare which would rouse the Arab peoples and frighten everyone else in the world. It may be that these invented tales of "Israeli froop concentrations" were launched in order to counteract the growing evidence of the Arab countrations" were launched in order to counteract the growing evidence of the Arab countries' own aggressive intentions. Foreign reactions to this unscrupulous war campaign apparently compelled the Arabs to invent an imaginary military threat from Israel, in order to cover up their own designs and pre-

As a matter of fact, while the Arab propaganda agencies were trumpeting abroad their allegations of "Israeli troop concentrations" on the border, there were, in fact, Iraqi troop concentrations on the Jordanian border and it may be that it was a the scene of the of the Soviet system.

Its leaders miss no chance of declaring that war is imminent — war for the conquest of Israel; and that Israel, at the same time, represents a grave military threat to the Arab world. In the meantime, Israel's new Foreign Minister has restated what has been Israel's policy from the start: "first and foremost comes peace." Israel insists on the independence and territorial integrity of all states — and has once again offered to enter into peace negotiations with her Arab neighbours. Of all this the Arab public is allowed to know nothing. Instead, it is fed on lies about Israel's "aggressive intentions" — as an attempt to cover up what are in fact the aggressive intentions of the Arab states. This may be effective once, twice, three times — or more. But in the end, it will boomerang against the Arab Governments themselves.

The Cairo weekly "Akhbar el Yom" in its latest issue bitterly criticized the Egyptian Government for introducing a new cody of behaviour, terming it "a reactionary step."

Under the new rules, Egyptians attending official receptions and other gatherings are prohibited from drinking alcoholic beverages while women are not allowed to wear low-cut dressue.

The paper said, "We want freedom not only in theory. The Government should give Egyptians freedom to draw as they see fit and drink what they want. They do not wish the Government to meddle in their personal affairs."

It pointed out that at a time

It pointed out that at a time the new constitution grants Egyptians freedom the Egyptian Treasury "robs them of their freedom to travel."

"Akhbar el Yom" also gave details regarding the new defence tax, which it said would amount to ELLI.5m., or half the additional sum needed for this year's armament programme. The rest will be covered by the new budget. The defence tax will be temporary and will be lifted as soon as the "rearming of the Egyptian forces will have been completed," the paper reported.

Jerusalem Post Reporter
REHOVOT, Bunday.

Hormone-feel poultry are a danger to human health and may affect fertility, Dr. M. Perek, head of the Poultry Division of the Agricultural Faculty here, said today.

He demanded the temporary stoppage of the use of hormones in poultry raising as long as chickens are not slaughtered and cleaned in special slaughter houses, such as aiready exist in Tel Aviv and Kfar Menahem.

The use of hormones in poultry raising is forbidden in Canada, Britain, South Africa and Switzerland, according to Mr. Perek. In the U.S. where hormones are used, chickens are marketed without head and nock, the parts where hormones may

Ship Is Sinking

What makes these episodes ominous is that they prove even the German Party to be no longer reliably loyal to Dr. Adenauer. Up to a few weeks ago any defection of the German Party seemed unthinkable — chiefly because it was too right-wing to have anything in common with Social Democrats, and because it was too small to survive without the electoral support of the Christian Democrats. If even the German Party is now showing signs of wanting to leave the ship of Dr. Adenauer's coalition, it strongly suggests that it considers this ship as sinking — although the defection of the German Party by itself would not make it sink.

present office was "necessary." Herr' Schaeffer has since decared that this does not satisfy him, and insisted on a written clarification of his status in the Cabinet before the parliamentary summer recess.

Bavarians Too

was being with the Bavarian Christian Socials demand a major Cabinet reshuffle, the dropping of a number of Ministers, especially those who formerly belonged to the Free Democrats and the Refugee Party and broke with their parties when these went into Opposition, and a strengthening of the position of Herr Schaeffer and another Bavarian Christian Social, Herr Strauss, the present Minister for Atomic Energy Development.
This amounts to a palace revolution against Dr. Adenauer, who is to be deprived of some of his devoted personal followers, and surrounded by stronger and rounded by stronger and more independent minsterial colleagues. It does not — or not yet — amount to a revolt against major policies as such, at least in foreign affairs.

Slow Disintegration It may be expected that some compromise will for the time being be found. Parliament is due to break up for the summer recess on July 6, and Dr. Adenauer will probably be able to svoid a major showdown and a break-up of his parliamentary party before that early Bundestag committee about allied stationing costs. Herr Schaeffer issued a public counter denial.

At this point the Christian Social Union intervened. At a meeting at Bayreuth last Sunday, they backed Herr Schaeffer and called for "coalition talks" with Dr. Adenauer special committee ago he still commanded a coalition with a two-thirds majority in both Houses of Parliament, while his party alone, which be completely controlled, had an absolute majority in the Bundestag. Since then, first the Refugee Party, then the Free Democrats have gone into Oppocrats a judge of the last factor and regret to admit that in most industrial buildings lighting is harmfully neglected. While it is very well known that light quantity and quality have a direct influence on a worker's efficiency, the average Israel employer grudges the extra expense involved in the difference between decent and insefficient or even harmful lighting.
